1. Mr. Walsh reported that there will be an NSC Meeting on SALT matters Thursday, 21 March. General Walters and Carl Duckett will attend.

2. [REDACTED] announced that a proposal to establish a National Intelligence Bulletin to replace the Central Intelligence Bulletin has been approved by a Staff study group. In brief, the NIB would have the same format as the CIB, but it would contain contributions from DIA and INR who would also be invited to send editorial representatives to Headquarters to assist in production. The NIB proposal will be surfaced at USIB early next month.

3. Mr. Walsh reported on Monday's Management Committee Meeting in which the focus was on follow-up actions to the PASG report.

4. Mr. Walsh announced that the MAGID paper on orientation for new employees will be discussed at Friday's Executive Council Meeting. In addition, the MAGID study on first-line supervision was distributed. Mr. Walsh asked for nominees from OER and OBG to replace the two MAGID members who will retire on 1 April. All Staffs and Offices are asked to nominate a secretary; one will be chosen to add to MAGID.
